

Civil Engineering, Sustainable Building and Building Services Engineering students of Metropolia;

Master of Science in 1 year for Bachelor graduates!

with Metropolia UAS and HTW/Berlin joint degree programme “Construction and Real Estate Management”

If you select Sustainable project management (15 ECTS) during your final year in Metropolia, you are eligible for this one year Master programme. The modules are Advanced mathematics, Sustainable development and Product modeling.

The Master programme starts in Helsinki from January to May, and continues in Berlin from October until February, i.e. one semester in each University. The programme consists of obligatory modules and master thesis studies. (Alternative 1)

Site and Real Estate Management: Helsinki	International site management Renovation and reconstruction Applied product modeling Case studies: real estate management Master thesis 1
Project Management: Berlin	European life cycle management Project Management Financial Mathematics, Information Systems, German Culture Case studies 2: International management Master thesis 2

Alternately, you may take both semesters in Berlin, starting in Berlin every year in October and continuing until July, total 2 semesters (Alternative 2).

Project Management: Berlin	European life cycle management Project Management Financial Mathematics, Information Systems, German Culture Case studies 2: International management Master thesis1
Project Development Berlin	Project Development International tendering contract administration Case studies 3: International business Case studies 4: Real Estate technology Master thesis 2

For more information and to apply: Mr. Eric Pollock, Coordinator (eric.pollock at metropolia.fi) or Mr. Timo Leppänen, Head (timo.leppanen at metropolia.fi)

Deadline for application to Metropolia's Sustainable project management (15 ECTS) option is March 2nd every year.