

Metropolia University of Applied Sciences Framework for evaluation: Final project (Bachelor's)

Targets of assessment	Professional competence and development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• significance for the profession and working life</li> <li>• utilisation of professional knowledge</li> <li>• development and self-development of professional competence</li> <li>• applicability in professional life and working life</li> </ul>	The methods and work procedures used, and results obtained <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• definition of purpose, targets and research or development items</li> <li>• methodological competence</li> <li>• description of outcomes and product</li> <li>• progress and management of the final project process</li> <li>• reliability</li> <li>• ethics</li> </ul>	Communication and presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• structure and form</li> <li>• fluency of language</li> <li>• critical, analytical and reflective nature of communication</li> <li>• argumentation and referencing</li> </ul>
Level of competence	The student can	The student can	The student can
Excellent 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• plan and scope the subject matter extremely well</li> <li>• select a subject that is extremely significant, topical and demanding in the profession and working life</li> <li>• use their professional knowledge base excellently for the purposes of the final project</li> <li>• develop professional expertise in their field excellently</li> <li>• create in the final project excellent new and significant solutions in the field and working life</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• define excellently the purpose, targets and research or development items of the final project</li> <li>• apply work procedures and methods excellently</li> <li>• combine excellently the chosen procedures and working methods with regard to the final project targets</li> <li>• report excellently on the applicability of the results/product with regard to other situations and environments</li> <li>• work excellently in accordance with research and development and professional ethics principles</li> <li>• assess excellently the work's reliability, ethical aspects and the process</li> <li>• work extremely responsibly, independently and in cooperation with others, adhering to any agreed issues and timetables</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• produce an excellently final project, the structure and form of which are in line with its purpose, targets and research or development items</li> <li>• use excellently the appropriate professional language in the final project</li> <li>• communicate excellently about the final project and its results to the target groups</li> <li>• provide excellent grounds for and an assessment of the professional actions, solutions and results</li> <li>• apply evidence-based source material excellently</li> <li>• follows excellently the instructions regarding referencing</li> </ul>
Good 4–3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• plan and scope the subject matter well</li> <li>• select a subject that is quite significant, topical and demanding in the profession and working life</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• define well the purpose, targets and research or development items of the final project</li> <li>• apply work procedures and methods well</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• produce a good final project, the structure and form of which are in line with its purpose, targets and research or development items</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• use their professional knowledge base well for the purposes of the final project</li> <li>• develop professional expertise in their field well</li> <li>• create in the final project good new and significant solutions in the field and working life</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• combine well the chosen procedures and working methods with regard to the final project targets</li> <li>• report the results/product well</li> <li>• report well on the applicability of the results/product with regard to other situations and environments</li> <li>• work well in accordance with research and development and professional ethics principles</li> <li>• assess well the work's reliability, ethical aspects and the process</li> <li>• work very responsibly, independently and in cooperation with others, adhering to any agreed issues and timetables</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• use well the appropriate professional language in the final project</li> <li>• communicate well about the final project and its results to the target groups</li> <li>• provide good grounds for and an assessment of the professional actions, solutions and results</li> <li>• apply evidence-based source material well</li> <li>• follows well the instructions regarding referencing</li> </ul>
Satisfactory 2–1 or pass	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• plan and scope the subject matter satisfactorily</li> <li>• select a subject that is somewhat significant and topical in the profession and working life</li> <li>• use their professional knowledge base satisfactorily for the purposes of the final project</li> <li>• develop professional expertise in their field satisfactorily</li> <li>• create in the final project satisfactory new and significant solutions in the field and working life</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• define satisfactorily the purpose, targets and research or development items of the final project</li> <li>• apply work procedures and methods satisfactorily</li> <li>• combine satisfactorily the chosen procedures and working methods with regard to the final project targets</li> <li>• report the results/product satisfactorily</li> <li>• report satisfactorily on the applicability of the results/product with regard to other situations and environments</li> <li>• work satisfactorily in accordance with research and development and professional ethics principles</li> <li>• assess satisfactorily the work's reliability, ethical aspects and the process</li> <li>• work reasonably responsibly, independently and in cooperation with others, adhering to any agreed issues and timetables</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• produce a satisfactory final project, the structure and form of which are in line with its purpose, targets and research or development items</li> <li>• use satisfactorily the appropriate professional language in the final project</li> <li>• communicate satisfactorily about the final project and its results to the target groups</li> <li>• provide satisfactory grounds for and an assessment of the professional actions, solutions and results</li> <li>• apply evidence-based source material satisfactorily</li> <li>• follows satisfactorily the instructions regarding referencing</li> </ul>

Fail	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• planning and scoping the subject matter is insufficient</li> <li>• the subject is not extensive enough in the profession and working life</li> <li>• the professional knowledge base is insufficient as the basis of the final project</li> <li>• develop insufficiently professional expertise in their field</li> <li>• the final project does not create enough new and significant solutions in the field and working life</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the purpose, targets and research or development items of the final project are not defined well enough</li> <li>• the work procedures and methods are not applied well enough</li> <li>• the chosen procedures and working methods are not well enough combined with regard to the final project targets</li> <li>• the results/product are not reported well enough</li> <li>• reporting on the applicability of the results/product with regard to other situations and environments is insufficient</li> <li>• work is insufficient in terms of the research and development and professional ethics principles</li> <li>• the work's reliability, ethical aspects and the process are insufficient</li> <li>• work does not meet the requirements in terms of cooperation with others or adherence to any agreed issues and timetables</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the final project's structure and form are insufficient in terms of its purpose, targets and research or development items</li> <li>• the final project's professional language is insufficient</li> <li>• communication about the final project and its results to the target groups is insufficient</li> <li>• insufficient grounds are provided on the professional actions, solutions and results</li> <li>• evidence-based source material is insufficiently applied</li> <li>• instructions regarding referencing are followed insufficiently</li> </ul>
--------------------	--	---	---